

Nutrition Services

Teledigm Health, in partnership with Bryan Telemedicine, sets the industry standard in telemedicine, providing a deep bench of clinical staffing resources and technical support with a focus on innovation and sustainability.

Access to a Clinical Registered Dietitian/Nutritionist

- Access to a licensed Nebraska registered dietitian with hospital experience who provides clinical support and oversight
- Affordable, trusted and convenient partnership to meet nutrition needs of patients and compliance considerations of hospitals
- Registered Dietitian Nutritionists (RDNs) are knowledgeable of local, state and federal regulations as well as the latest nutritional research
- RDNs consult with dietary managers to oversee food service operations for safety and sanitation in accordance with federal and state regulations
- Meets clinical documentation requirements for patient care
- Personable, quality care that puts patients and staff at ease

Hospital Challenges

- Availability of licensed registered dietitians
- Knowledge of federal and state regulations to maintain compliance for safety and quality in nutrition services
- Resources to incorporate nutrition therapy into patient care to improve outcomes
- Over 50 percent of hospitalized patients are malnourished at admission which leads to poor health outcomes such as longer lengths of stay and high readmission rates

Reduce Patient Transfers

Our telemedicine programs have proven to reduce patient transfers by up to 70%.
